

LandHealth Community

Making Healthy Choices Easy

Geographic Overview

EAST CENTRAL ILLINOIS

Responsive grants and convening that:

- Sustain the long term health of the land, as well as the viability of agricultural businesses by supporting the development of innovative land management practices.
- Grow a healthy agricultural and food economy, enhancing economic opportunities and creating jobs.
- Create an environment where people are able to choose healthy, affordable food necessary for personal health.

COLES COUNTY

Proactive grants (by request) and programs that:

- Support green business practices.
- Increase physical activity and healthy eating.
- Support sector-wide collaboration, learning, and research to improve health.
- Protect and preserve the natural environment, enhance existing amenities, and create new opportunities for people to enjoy the outdoors.

MATTOON

Proactive grants (by request) and programs that:

- Create community amenities that attract new businesses and retain local talent.
- Support opportunities for community leaders and learning communities to improve health.
- Develop the built environment to promote physical activity and healthy eating.

Springfield

Champaign

Effingham